British Ship Picks Up Parts From Missing US Airplane

Gives New Hope Of Survivors; To Search Area

LONDON (AP)—A Royal Air Force spokesman said today a British ship has picked up the wheels and part of the undercarriage from the U. S. Military Air Transport plane missing since Wednesday in the Atlantic with 59 U. S. servicemen.

"It gives us new hope that there might be a dinghy or dinghies in the area with survivors," the RAF officer said in Cornwall. "A new search is now being gradually built up around the area in which the wreckage was found."

A U. S. Air Force spokesman in London said he could not confirm the wreckage was from the missing plane, a C118 Liftmaster.

The debris was picked up by the British tanker Navicella about 370 miles west of Land's End, the most southwesterly point of Britain.

U. S. Air Force authorities here said the serial numbers of the wheels still had to be checked with the numbers of the wheels of the missing aircraft before it could be definitely established they were the same.

A high-speed British launch was dispatched to the tanker to pick up the wreckage.

The U. S. Air Force announced earlier today that its search for survivors would continue indefinitely.

The big military transport version of the DC6 disappeared last Wednesday night on a flight from England to the United States by way of the Azores. It carried 50 Air Force men returning home after duty in Britain and nine Navy crewmen.

Numerous investigations have been carried out after planes or ships reported picking up distress signals or sighting life rafts, flares, wreckage, dye markers and other objects.

All the reports fizzled out.

Estes Attacks Nixon in Strong GOP Territory

BURLINGTON, Vt. (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver, choosing Republican territory for his strongest attack of the campaign on Richard Nixon, said today the vice president "is trying to get into the White House on false premises, a false front and a false face."

"I can't believe," Kefauver said in a prepared speech, "that Vermonters would want Mr. Nixon to possibly succeed to the presidency or at the least to become the center of power in the Republican party that they have so long supported."

The Democratic vice-presidential nominee, recovered from a sore throat he picked up in dust-plagued Midwest towns, was setting out on a new coast-to-coast tour after only a brief overnight stop at his Washington home. He covered about 6,000 miles and six states in the past week.

He told newsmen on arriving in Washington last night that he felt fine and was ready for an all-out effort in the final three weeks of the campaign.

Mayor Tucker Chooses To Seek Re-election

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Changing his mind from plans he chartered four years ago, St. Louis Mayor Raymond R. Tucker has decided to seek re-election next spring for another four-year term.

The St. Louis Democrat said the switch in decision came "after long and careful consideration."

He said Saturday that he would run again to see that the "programs which we set out to accomplish" are realized.

He referred to a huge 1955 bond issue and an election of a board of reholders, both of which he backed.

We Can Boast, Too

They say the autumn colors are spectacular down in the Lake of the Ozarks region, but even dry Sedalia's Liberty Park is a lovely place these days.

Partly cloudy tonight and Tuesday with little change in temperature; low tonight near 58; high Tuesday in low 80s.

The temperature at 7 a. m. was 60; 77 at 1 p. m., and 78 at 2 p. m. Low Sunday night 57.

The temperature one year ago today, high 64, low 34; two years ago, high 55, low 40, and three years ago, high 84, low 54.

Stage at Lake of the Ozarks, $3.4, unchanged.

RAFT SIGHTINGS CLUE PLANE'S FATE — "X" on Newsmap locates area some 100 miles northwest of La Coruna, Spain, where search planes sighted two empty life rafts which might have been from the Air Force C-118 transport, missing on a flight from Lakenheath, England, to the United States. Radio fixes first placed distress signals as coming from an area 150 miles north of the Azores, but rescue officials point out that strong ocean currents could have caused rafts to drift hundreds of miles from the crash site. ## Ike to Take Lead in GOP Campaigning

Talks Scheduled For 5 Days in Row; Steps Up Tempo

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower, leaving tomorrow on a trip to the West Coast, takes the lead this week in stepping up the tempo of the Republican campaign.

For the first time since opening his re-election drive, he has political speeches scheduled — either recorded or out on the stump — five days in a row.

From his standpoint, the quickened campaign pace starts tonight with two filmed five-minute talks on nationwide television.

The first over NBC will be at 9:25 p. m., EDT, the second over ABC at 10:25 p. m.

Tomorrow night he will be on coast-to-coast TV again, also for five minutes, with another filmed appeal over CBS for votes.

The time: 7:55 p. m.

These recorded talks are the first in a series of 33 which between now and election day Nov. 6 will feature the President, members of his Cabinet and other leading Republicans. The series is called "Your Government and You."

Republicans also are stepping up their half-hour TV shows from one to three a week.

For Eisenhower, who observed his 66th birthday anniversary quietly with his family yesterday, the business of getting out around the country more in a bid for votes starts tomorrow morning.

He will leave then by plane, accompanied by Mrs. Eisenhower, on a four-day tour which will take him to the Pacific Northwest with stops on the way out in Minnesota and on the way back in Colorado.

Star of Broadway Show Collapses

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP)—Actress-dancer Carol Haney, star of the Broadway hit "Panama Game," was reported in satisfactory condition today at Mt. Sinai Hospital. She collapsed Friday night at a Las Vegas, Nev., night club where she was appearing in the show. Her doctor said she was suffering from exhaustion and a throat infection.

Tom Craig Reports Theft and Beating On Saturday Night

Tom Craig, 1213 South Limit, reported to the police he was hijacked by three Negroes about midnight Saturday, beaten and robbed of his billfold containing $30, and identification papers. Craig reported to officers that he was stopped by the three at Ohio and the railroad tracks and asked to take them home. He said they drove to just south of the incinerator plant on West Clay, where they beat him up.

Craig told the police he was knocked out and did not regain consciousness until about 4:15, just before he saw the police patrol car and stopped it. He then went to police headquarters after talking with the officers and gave a more complete report.

UN Secretary Makes Effort In Suez Crisis

UNITED NATIONS (AP)—U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld today prepared to make a new effort to bring Britain, France and Egypt to agreement in the Suez Canal dispute.

The task of mediation was kicked back to the secretary general after Security Council endorsement of six principles for a settlement — worked out in private talks with Hammarskjöld last week — and a Soviet veto of a British-French demand for international operation of the waterway.

A French spokesman said it had not yet been settled when the mediation talks with Hammarskjöld would be held.

U. S. Secretary of State Dulles, before his return to Washington, conferred with British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd early yesterday. A British spokesman said it was possible Dulles and Lloyd discussed the 15-nation Suez Canal Users' Assn. (SCUA), which Britain is anxious to get operating.

The New York Times reported that Lloyd asked the United States to join in getting SCUA operating this week, without waiting for completion of organizational details. The British reportedly want SCUA to start collecting the canal tolls for the ships of the 15 nations, and to withhold any portion from Egypt unless the Egyptians "cooperate" with SCUA.

Dulles, according to the Times, promised to answer Lloyd's request through diplomatic channels.

Orders Start Of First Atom Powered Ship

Ike Statement Given in Ceremony At the White House

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today ordered government agencies "to proceed as rapidly as possible" with design and construction of America's first atomic-powered merchant ship.

"I am confident the ship will be the forerunner of atomic merchant and passenger fleets which one day will unite the nations of the world in peaceful trade," Eisenhower said.

His statement was issued in connection with a White House ceremony at which a go-ahead construction was authorized.

The ship will be a combination vessel designed to carry approximately 100 passengers and have a deadweight cargo capacity of 12,000 tons.

Construction was authorized by Congress during the last session. The ship will have a service speed of 21 knots and will be about 595 feet long and 78 feet across the beam. The spending limit set by Congress is $46 million dollars.

Eisenhower's original proposal was for the construction of an atomic-powered "peace ship" to visit harbors around the world with exhibits of the peaceful uses of the atom.

Congressional Democrats followed the peace ship as a "showboat" and pressed instead for a working merchant ship. Eisenhower signed the bill for a vessel of the latter type July 30.

America has had a nuclear-powered warship since the launching of the submarine "Nautilus" in January, 1954.

Hennings Questions USDA Directive Excluding Missouri

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A Department of Agriculture directive excluding Missouri from reduced freight rates on hay has been questioned by Sen. Hennings (D-Mo.).

The senator brought up the issue in a telegram sent Saturday to President Eisenhower, in which the chief executive was asked to "reconsider" the department's directive.

In the telegram, Hennings said making neighboring states eligible for lower rates "places Missouri farmers under a distinct disadvantage and is unfair."

Hennings said the department didn't make Missouri eligible because it said drought conditions weren't thought to have existed as long as in some other states made eligible.

"Farmers have been appealing to me for assistance everywhere I have been throughout Missouri," Hennings messaged. "While reduced freight rates will not save many farmers, this action will make the suffering less disastrous."

Mathew Westermier, 17, of 2400 South Kentucky, said he was driving west on the highway and was just passing the Shroud car when it swerved off the pavement. He went on to Brown's Service Station and notified the Sedalia police, who in turn called the State Patrol.

Shroud was picked up by Miss Betty Kindle and Miss Lona Gallaway, both of Independence, who were in the car just ahead of him, and took him on to Smithton, where he notified his father, Earl Shroud, owner of the car, and called for a wrecker.

The Hamlin wrecker towed the car to Sedalia.

Man Receives Minor Injuries In Accident

John William Shroud, 21, Smithton, escaped with minor hurts about 1:15 a. m. Sunday when his car left the highway and rolled over four times on Highway 50 approximately four miles east of Sedalia. The car was extensively damaged.

Shroud told State Troopers Stockell and Joos of the Highway Patrol he had been to Warrensburg to attend the Central Missouri State College football game and was enroute home. He said he was driving about 60 miles an hour and his windshield seemed to be a little foggy. He came up in back of a car, applied the brakes, found they were weak and then jammed them on to try to slow down.

He said when he saw he might hit the other car, he pulled to the shoulder and believed he struck an object which caused the car to swerve to the right. The car, a 1956 Bel Aire Chevrolet sedan, went down a small embankment, started rolling, and stopped next to the Missouri Pacific right-of-way embankment.

Mathew Westermier, 17, of 2400 South Kentucky, said he was driving west on the highway and was just passing the Shroud car when it swerved off the pavement. He went on to Brown's Service Station and notified the Sedalia police, who in turn called the State Patrol.

Shroud was picked up by Miss Betty Kindle and Miss Lona Gallaway, both of Independence, who were in the car just ahead of him, and took him on to Smithton, where he notified his father, Earl Shroud, owner of the car, and called for a wrecker.

The Hamlin wrecker towed the car to Sedalia.

ROAD MAPPER — Bertram D. Tallamy, chairman of New York State's Thruway Authority, has been named by President Eisenhower to take charge of the nation's 33-billion-dollar, 13-year highway program. Tallamy's appointment to the long-term, $20,000-a-year post is subject to Senate approval when Congress convenes in January. (NEA Telephoto)

Will Air-Condition Buses in St. Louis

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The St. Louis Public Service Co. will put 100 air-conditioned express buses on the streets next summer.

This treat for bus riders was announced by the firm yesterday. John C. Baine, president of the company, said the decision was prompted by results of experiments this summer with air-cooled buses.

He said 96 per cent of 1,000 riders polled on their opinion of air conditioned favored it, two per cent accepted it with reservations and two per cent opposed it saying they didn't like a sudden change in temperature.

Webb Citian Held For Wounding Trooper And Threat With Gun

LAMAR, Mo. (AP)—A Webb City man is being held for wounding a highway patrolman and threatening a family with a rifle.

He is Claude Leroy Carter, 34, and is in jail on a charge of assault with intent to kill. His preliminary hearing will be Oct. 21.

Trooper Wayne Oberhelman was shot in the ankle with a .22 caliber rifle bullet Saturday night while he was looking for Carter near the Sam Goodrum farm home.

Sgt. Tom Loy of the patrol said Carter, after drinking a bottle of wine, threatened Mr. and Mrs. George Ewing and their small child with a rifle on U. S. 43. When they tried to escape he gave chase and rammed their car from behind. Loy said. Ewing got away and called officers from Goodrum's farmhouse.

The shooting occurred when Oberhelman answered the call. Carter was arrested shortly afterward by other officers.

Tension Sharp on Border; Talk of War Danger Renews

JERUSALEM (AP)—Israel, in a statement apparently aimed at Britain, warned today against support of any move by Iraq troops into Arab Jordan.

Tension was sharp on both sides of the Israel-Jordan border and there was talk in Israel of renewed danger of war as the result of reported plans by Iraq to send troops to bolster young King Hussein's shaky Jordan regime.

"Whoever encourages and abets actively or passively, Iraq in the realization of its schemes takes upon himself grave responsibility," said an Israeli Foreign Ministry statement.

The statement did not mention Britain by name.

In London, however, the British Foreign Office spokesman said the government of Prime Minister Eden has advised Israel that the dispatch of Iraq troops to Jordan would "contribute to stability in a troubled area."

The British purpose was represented as an effort to calm the fears of the Israeli government that the existing balance in the Middle East would be upset by an Iraqi move.

The British are reported to fear that King Hussein's Jordan regime is in danger of collapse from pressures from extreme Arab nationalist elements backed by Egypt. Jordan is holding nationwide elections next Sunday.

The U. S. government is reported backing the British view.

Britain and Jordan have an alliance, and Jordan last week formally called on Britain for Royal Air Force support during an alleged attack by Israeli planes in a border clash.

A London spokesman explained today that the fighting died down before the use of Israeli aircraft could be confirmed.

Salem, still a close friend of Nasser's, declared in a newspaper statement that Iraqi Premier Said was the "head agent of British imperialism in the whole Arab world."

Israel today distributed to all foreign legations in the country a report of a Baghdad radio broadcast in which Iraq reminded that a "state of war still exists between Iraq and Israel."

"The Arab world will soon realize that Iraq will stand at the side of her sister nations to repel Zionist aggression," the broadcast was quoted as saying.

The broadcast explained that it was intended to refute "insults" in the Syrian press that Iraq was unfaithful to sister Arab nations. But the Israeli Foreign Office said it confirmed Israeli charges that Iraq desires "territorial expansion and aggression."

The Israeli government has publicly declared its "anxiety and astonishment" at the British position. It called home its ambassadors to London, Washington, Paris and Moscow as the crisis sharpened.

In Amman, Jordan's capital, an official statement was expected on

Will Air-Condition Buses in St. Louis

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The St. Louis Public Service Co. will put 100 air-conditioned express buses on the streets next summer.

This treat for bus riders was announced by the firm yesterday. John C. Baine, president of the company, said the decision was prompted by results of experiments this summer with air-cooled buses.

the conferences between young King Hussein and the Iraqi delegation headed by Crown Prince Abdul Ilah. The talks opened yesterday. A Jordanian source described them as "of a purely military nature."

Word that Iraq planned to send about 3,000 troops to strengthen Jordan's government against collapse circulated in Washington last Wednesday. The United States and Britain reportedly approved the idea, believing the Iraqis would act as a stabilizing influence during the country-wide elections next Sunday.

But Israel saw the move as "a direct threat to Israel's integrity."

"This threat the government of Israel . . . is determined to meet," Foreign Minister Golda Meir said in a statement.

An appeal to the Security Council against the Iraqi troop movement was reported under consideration.

Britain took an increasingly grave view of the situation. The British-Jordan collective defense agreement of 1948 obligates Britain to help the little Arab nation if it is attacked.

Signal Starts Construction Of River Dam

President Touches Button That Sets Off Explosives

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Bureau of Reclamation officials waited at two remote spots today for the signal from President Eisenhower that starts construction of the gigantic Upper Colorado River project.

Arrangements were made for the President to touch a button in the White House in Washington. It was to set off an electrical impulse which would travel along telephone lines and on radio circuits to Glen Canyon, in northern Arizona, and Flaming Gorge, in northern Utah.

There explosives were ready to begin, at the President's signal, construction work on two of the units which make up the 760-million-dollar project, largest reclamation undertaking ever authorized by Congress at a single time.

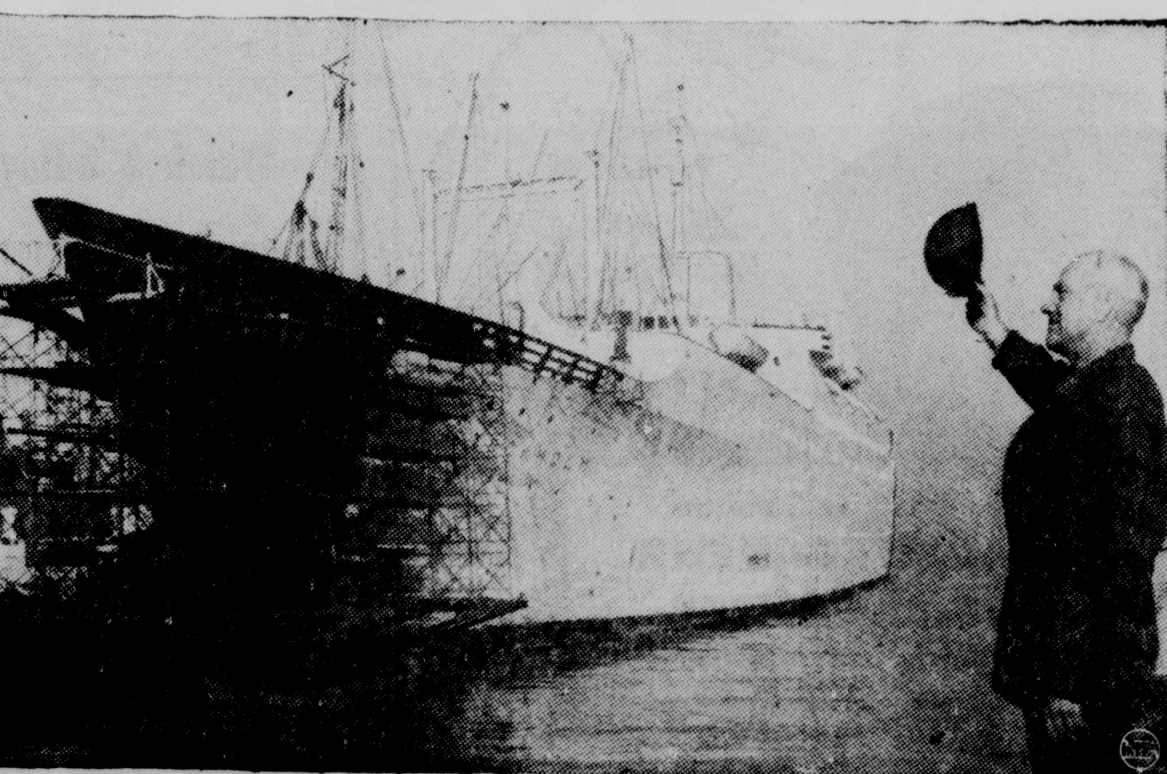

Glen Canyon, 700 feet high, and Flaming Gorge, 500 feet high, will be two of the four storage and power-producing dams of the Upper Colorado project. The Upper Basin states are Utah, Colorado, Wyoming and New Mexico.

Glen Canyon, on the Colorado River in Arizona, just south of the Utah border, will produce 800,000 kilowatts of power, about two thirds the capacity of Hoover Dam also on the Colorado. Flaming Gorge, on the Green River, a Colorado tributary, will produce 85,000 kilowatts. It is located in Utah, just south of the Wyoming border.

The Upper Colorado project also includes distribution units which will carry water to land in the area for irrigation purposes. Altogether the project embraces an area of about 110,000 square miles.

Construction of Glen Canyon and Flaming Gorge dams is expected to take about six years. Development of other units will take even longer.

In Support of Progress . . .

Any program which has for its purpose the prevention or minimizing of loss by fire should have public support.

Coincidentally with the observance of Fire Prevention Week, the Pettis County Court made an encouraging report that its county-wide system of fire protection was about complete with five county towns — La Monte, Smithton, Green Ridge, Houstonia and Hughesville entering into a working agreement. This means a wide distribution of pumper and hose equipment for use by volunteer fire-fighters in each community supporting this plan.

Many small fires out in the county can be kept under control or put out entirely by these mobile auxiliary units. They should prove valuable in supplementing the major work of the Pettis County Fire department with its more extensive equipment.

Commendable is the manner in which the citizens of the various communities have cooperated in agreeing to give this county-wide fire protection project a trial. Properly supported at the local level there is reason to believe it will be effective in reducing fire losses out in the county. Definitely it is an approach to modern fire fighting methods. Certainly the farmer needs it, the same as the small town residents. Sedalia, of course, must have it.

It's not always easy to sell people on ideas to protect their property and themselves. We recall that more than forty years ago there was a big hullabaloo about Sedalia buying motorized fire fighting equipment to replace the old horsedrawn hook and ladder wagons and steam pumper, which were "good enough for grandpa." The new equipment was bought and added to in the course of many years. And now Sedalia needs more fire fighting equipment, particularly a new station out in the southwest end of town. It will come some day.

In the meantime we'd like to predict that the county towns, if they support the volunteer arrangement with pumper and hose, will not relinquish this service for fire protection once its effectiveness is adequately demonstrated.

An improved Pettis County fire fighting system has long been needed. This condition was so recognized when members of the county court during previous elections told their district people they would do something about it.

Usually such promises in political campaigns turn out to be so much hot air. That's why we'd like to commend the present county court for delivering on this promise, not only in getting the fire fighting program under way, but the manner in which they have worked with the doctors, welfare department and Bothwell Hospital in providing for care of the indigent sick; the repairs and improvements to the interior of the ratty-looking Pettis County courthouse; the friendly and personal contacts the court members have made with the people out in the county.

We like it that way.

Loan to Israel May Help Jake Javits

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON.—Biggest political bonanza of the Presidential campaign has been handed ex-Congressman Jake Javits of New York, now running for the Senate, after he came to Washington to speed up a $75,000,000 loan to Israel.

Javits, now the Republican Attorney General of New York, is running for the Senate seat of retiring Sen. Herbert Lehman, Democrat. And one day after Mayor Bob Wagner of New York, Javits, opponent, urged that arms be given free to Israel. Javits hied himself to Washington.

There he saw President Eisenhower, urged him to speak in New York. Then he saw Secretary of State John Foster Dulles. After leaving Dulles' office, Javits, who knows his way around Washington, went down to the State Department press room and corralled apathetic reporters who hadn't paid much attention to his conference with the Secretary of State.

He told them that he had urged Dulles to grant a $75,000,000 loan to Israel.

Actually this loan has been in the works for some time. The Israel Government has applied every expectation that the loan would be granted. Irrigation in Israel is a sound and important investment.

However, thanks to the frantic appeal of Jacob Javits and the GOP desire to win a Senate seat from New York, the loan not only is being announced earlier, but is being announced by Secretary of State Dulles himself, who has little to do with the Export-Import bank.

At first it was proposed that President Eisenhower announce the loan to Israel when he went to New York to speak for Javits. This was finally ruled out as too political. Also Dulles has aroused much bitterness among Jews, so it was considered expedient to let him make the announcement.

Javits surprised New York voters by defeating Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., for Attorney General in 1954, despite the fact that Averell Harriman and the Democrats carried other state offices. Javits polled a big Jewish vote, even though the

Gad. American women have an approximate equity of 100 billion dollars in common and preferred stock, according to a report from Fortune magazine.

Futhermore, a consensus of brokers indicates women leave investments decisions to men, are likely to become emotionally attached to certain stocks, and are highly susceptible to "hot tips." At the risk of sounding one-sided, this seems to prove what we've believed all along. Dames are absolutely unpredictable.

ANNISTON (Ala.) STAR: More On Newspapers. Television provides an entertaining method of watching the great national parties in convention, but a GOP leader asserts that "we place more dependence on newspapers to carry our political appeals to the public than any other media."

Mrs. Charles Weis, member of the Republican National Committee, says the value of newspapers lies in "their day-to-day reporting of the news. Any politician who knows anything is conscious of the value and power of newspapers. They cannot get along without them."

You might have thought that just about everybody would be found sitting in front of a TV set during the two conventions, but an organization that measures viewing audiences reported that only 30.4 per cent of the homes in America were tuned in. On top of that, the audience was broken up by three separate networks with NBC drawing 12.6 per cent of the viewing audience, CBS 12.5 per cent and ABC 5.3 per cent. The politicians had a top audience of approximately 6 to 7 million homes. Contrast this to the 54 million copies of newspapers printed every day and you will see what Mrs. Weis meant.

How Much Political Hay Is the H-Bomb?

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON.—One of the campaign puzzles is how much political hay Adlai Stevenson is making with his repeated speeches on ending H-bomb tests.

He seems to think he's found a major campaign issue here. He arranged to talk about it again tonight in a nationwide television speech.

He's intensely interested himself. What isn't known is how many voters are interested. Stevenson is said to be convinced, on the basis of crowd reaction, that the subject is one that voters are vitally concerned about.

If it has little voter interest, then Stevenson is using up a lot of valuable campaign time that could be devoted to issues which concern voters more immediately than an H-bomb explosion in the Pacific.

Only a handful of people in the United States have enough information on the H-bomb to form an intelligent opinion on whether the tests should be ended with or without prior Russian agreement to do the same.

That handful is composed of nuclear scientists, a few military leaders, and key civilians in the Eisenhower administration.

President Eisenhower, after saying several times the tests must be continued for national defense reasons, reached a point last week where he said he will not discuss it any more.

But he has never told the public the full story. He can't, he said, for reasons of national security; too much secret information is involved.

Thus shut out from a full knowledge of the problem, the voters cannot reach an informed opinion on the rightness or wrongness of Eisenhower or Stevenson.

The most they can do is choose up sides for political or emotional reasons.

In this argument Eisenhower, by invoking secrecy, has in effect asked the public to trust him when he says he's right and Stevenson is wrong.

Ten days ago, before promising to say no more on the bomb tests, Eisenhower issued an explanatory statement from the White House.

In it he emphasized he was not talking — when he said the tests must go on — as a political candidate but as president and therefore as the one most responsible for national safety.

He did it in this one sentence

after saying government leaders make their decisions on the bomb after much thought on what is necessary for national defense:

"This specific matter (the H-bomb) is manifestly not a subject for detailed public discussion — for obvious security reasons."

With that he pulled down the curtain on full public knowledge and asked the voters to believe that he was in a better position than Stevenson to know what is needed.

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS FROM YOUR STATE CAPITOL

The Missouri Highway Patrol is considering a deal with a major automobile manufacturer for a fleet of 250 patrol cars to be traded in once a year.

The deal, reported to have been offered by the Dodge division of Chrysler Motors, would provide for a trade-in every 25,000 miles. The cost of the new cruisers would be $250 plus the trade-in.

The patrol presently trades its patrol cars every 60,000 miles. The Dodge proposal would eliminate major maintenance costs and the cost of replacement parts such as tires.

The major objection to the Dodge deal, according to a patrol officer, is that it would be unfair to other car manufacturers and would commit the patrol to one type of automobile for some time.

Hubert Wheeler, state education commissioner, has revealed that his department is busy preparing the first curriculum guides in Missouri since the early 40's.

Wheeler said his staff is about half finished with the preparation of guides for every conceivable grade school and high school course. The last time the task was done was in 1940-41 under Lloyd King who was then state superintendent of schools.

Wheeler said the new curriculum guides do not outline a course of study. "We're more concerned," he said, "with the scope and sequence of a course." He explained that through use of the guides there would be more uniformity in teaching in various parts of the state.

Wheeler said it takes two years for a committee of teachers and education experts to prepare the guides. He estimated that the 29 guides would not be completed until 1960. So far five have been printed, seven are prepared and 13 are in the production stage.

An application for a proposed telephone rate increase for Worth, Nodaway, Harrison and Gentry counties has been received by the state public service commission. The increase would be an across the board 75 cents a month for each telephone.

Another proposed rate increase was filed at the public service commission recently by the Fidelity Telephone Co. of Sullivan.

Ruth Millett Says--

Wives Are Only Influence That Can Slow Down Men

I've noticed that whenever a successful man in his late forties or early fifties dies of a heart attack, the men who knew him say, with a stunned look, that is a shame and then hastily change the subject.

I think they are just plain scared. They are scared because they know they are leading the same kind of lives as the man whose heart couldn't take it any more.

As he was a little while ago, so they are. Here are the symptoms:

Working harder than they should. Worrying about bills and taxes. Being too easy with the wants of their wives and children.

Buying bigger cars than they need and buying new ones more often than is necessary. Building more expensive houses than they can afford.

Keeping up a social pace they don't really enjoy. Giving their children too much and expecting too little of them in return.

Looking into the future and seeing no real financial security. Then, being conscience-driven in buying more life insurance than they can afford. If they, too, join the men who are dying before their time their wives and children will be provided for.

No wonder they don't like to talk about Joe's heart attack or Jim's sudden death right after he had finished building his family's "dream house."

With each such event they feel more than sympathy for the man whose life has been cut short. They feel kinship and fear for themselves.

And yet they mustn't show that fear. They have to go on pretending to give their families more and more.

Who can help these men who can't help themselves?

Just their wives.

It is the wife who has to call a halt, who has to think more of her husband's need for rest than of her need to be seen at the country club dance. It's the wife who has to say "No" to the kids' unreasonable demands.

It is the wife who has to say, "Let's get this family in the black," instead of letting Papa worry about the bills and the installment payments.

It's the wife who has to choose whether or not she wants to have a husband in her old age — or live on his life insurance.

Campaign Mechanics Count--

Ike Entourage Smoother On Details Than Stevenson's

By Joseph A. Dear
Of Our Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON.—The Ike campaign is a model of efficiency compared with Adlai's.

The President's sally to Pittsburgh offers a fair sample of how his show is run. His TV speech was prepared in advance. Reporters were handed a copy as soon as their chartered plane was airborne.

The timing of the operation was perfect. Ike arrived just as Pittsburgh was leaving. That assured maximum crowds. And the crowds were large — the largest Ike has had in this campaign.

At Hunt Armory, where Ike gave his speech, no effort had been spared to facilitate the work of newsmen, radio and TV crews, and photographers.

It's not that their comfort is particularly important. But if they can operate easily, they'll have a chance to do a better job faster. And all the candidates want magazines, and on the airwaves. That's the way they get their story across.

Stevenson was through Pennsylvania on his way to West Virginia a week ago. And though Adlai didn't motorcade into Pittsburgh, he did deliver a TV speech from a studio there. (Adlai will be back in Pennsylvania.)

His TV speech wasn't available until the last moment. At that, he made corrections in the "final" version before going on the air. Then came the West Virginia fiasco.

The airlines people had warned that Elkins, West Virginia, might be fog bound in the fall. Even so, the campaign plan hinged on flying back to New York after the Elkins appearance. (Stevenson got to Elkins by train.) Sure enough, the airfield was closed.

For the first time, Stevenson ran ahead of his party. His campaign party, that is. He flew, in a borrowed light plane, to Pittsburgh, where he reemplaned for important rallies in New York. His party — which included reporters for all media and most of his personal staff — straggled after in busses. Eventually the busses got to the Pittsburgh airport. By that time Stevenson was winding up his show in New York. And that's just one example.

Of course, the President always has an advantage over others in keeping to schedule. The Secret Service sees to that. The Presidential motorcade never stops. The Secret Service doesn't want its charge to be a sitting target. So if there's a roadblock, the President's car will swing to an alternate route, planned in advance. That's the way it is for any President.

Even so, it's my impression that the Ike campaign was more efficient as to detail four years ago. I remember flying to Abilene, Kansas, where Ike made his bow as a candidate for the Republican nomination. It was a jim-jim operation.

Ike didn't take to campaigning at first. When he stepped off his plane at Kansas City a big fellow in Texas boots walked up and fetched him a shattering wallop on the back. Ike glared and choked down a bellow. (The backslapper, incidentally, was Gov. Dan Thornton of Colorado.)

In those distant days Ike said he wasn't going to campaign for the nomination. In the end, he did. Before the mid-term Congressional elections, he wasn't going to campaign either. But he did. And not long ago, he said he wouldn't barnstorm for votes. But it looks like he will, though he'll try to confine himself to brief "shot in the arm" appearances in politically strategic areas.

Back in Abilene, Ike made the appropriate gesture for a candidate. At the local ball field he took off a handsome hat and tossed it into the air. It settled in a large mud puddle.

That was a gesture. Figuratively, Ike still wore the hat. But he's finally let go. There isn't much doubt that he enjoys campaigning now.

He likes to be liked. He warms to crowds, just as they warm to him. That was apparent in Pittsburgh. He got a charge when he saw the packed streets. And it was a lift to hear the ovation at the Armory.

If a man reacts to applause, he's probably sensitive to criticism. And that Ike is. It's obvious that Stevenson has made an impression; that he has gotten under the skin.

And if the GOP high command figures Stevenson is making an impression on voters, the Ike campaign may go into high gear. Being liked isn't enough. Ike also has a will to win.

Odds and Ends
By News Staff

IT WAS A printing job being done in Sedalia for a state organization dealing with hogs, cattle and such. The proofs had been sent to Jefferson City and the ink was very light on the proof. The woman in that city looked at them with horror. There were pink hogs and pink cattle—she couldn't have that. She telephoned the printing company and already they had about half of the booklets printed.

"I don't like the color," the Jefferson City woman said. The Sedalia woman knew what the trouble was, but she couldn't take the chance that when all the booklets were printed the woman wouldn't want them. She tried to explain and told the woman she would come down and bring one of the booklets so they could get the colors straightened out.

So out she went, jumped in her car and when she got as far as Syracuse she thought about eating lunch. She had a feeling all of a sudden she hadn't brought any money. She looked to see if she had brought her purse and she hadn't. She had just grabbed up her car keys when she left and that was all.

It was about 12:45 when she reached Jefferson City and the woman she wanted to see wasn't there. She was out to lunch.

"Why don't you," suggested a man she had never seen before, "go down to the cafeteria here and eat, and by that time she will be back."

"I can't," said the Sedalia woman, "I don't have any money with me," and then she explained her plight.

The strange man reached down in his pocket and pulled out money for her lunch. "Here," he said, "go get something to eat."

She took it and went on down to the cafeteria to get her lunch.

Later she got things straightened out with the woman and proved to her she wouldn't have a booklet of pink hogs and cows, and headed for home with the thought she would have to look up the man she had never seen before the next time she was down there and give him back his money.

Costs Need To Match Farm Size

By C. R. MEEKER
MU Extension Farm Management Specialist

Tractor power and machinery on the farm are requiring more and more money, both to buy and to operate.

The change from horse power to tractor power has caused a great increase in cash costs. For example, the direct cash cost of growing corn in Missouri has increased from 30 per cent to 70 per cent of total costs in the past 40 years.

This means that it's essential to fit power and machinery to the farm so that costs can be kept in line with the size of farm and income expected. Otherwise, the costs can cut too big a hole in net income.

This also means we need to keep records or make estimates. We need to know the investment per acre and machinery costs per acre. If we are figuring on buying new machinery, we should estimate the effect of this on these costs. That can help answer the question of whether to buy or whether to hire the work done.

There are two kinds of costs to consider: operating costs and fixed costs.

Operating costs include fuel, oil and grease, cash cost of repairs, and labor in servicing and repairing equipment.

Fixed costs include depreciation, interest on the investment, housing, insurance, taxes, and other miscellaneous costs.

With every unit of work added, the fixed cost per unit declines. For example, suppose the fixed cost on a machine is $100 and the machine is used 100 hours. Then the fixed cost per hour is $1. If the machine is used 200 hours the fixed cost drops to 50 cents per hour. Machinery used only a little during a year adds much to total machinery costs.

On the other hand, the variable cost per unit is about constant. Plowing may take two gallons of fuel per hour, whether one or a hundred acres are plowed.

We have no choice except to use machinery but we need to use it with full knowledge of the costs and how it fits our size of farm.

A helpful bulletin entitled, "Farm Tractor Costs," can be obtained at your county extension office.

Wool Support Information Available

Murray C. Colbert, chairman of the Missouri State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, has received word that the U. S. Department of Agriculture has made available a preliminary state-by-state breakdown of payments under the 1955 wool incentive program, which amounts to $55 million for the initial tabulation. These payments, which are on estimated 90 per cent or more complete nationally, were made to bring the average price of 42.8 cents per pound received by producers for 1955 wool up to the 62-cent incentive level.

Of the total paid, $45.5 million was made in shorn wool payments and $6.6 million in payments on wool on lambs marketed for slaughter. Deductions from payments of $2.9 million for the industry promotion program make up the balance of the $55 million total. Deductions from producers' payments for a promotion program are provided for in the law and were approved by producers in a nation-wide referendum in the summer of 1955.

The bulk of payments remaining to be made are on shorn wool to Kentucky producers and on lambs nationally.

The payments on shorn wool under the 1955 program which began and ended March 31, 1956, were made at the rate of 44.9 per cent of producers' sales returns from wool. This resulted in a payment of $44.90 for every $100 producers received from the sale of wool. The payment rate on lambs was 77 cents per hundred weight of live animals marketed. The latter payment is designed to encourage the normal marketings of lambs without shearing.

Deductions for the promotion program amount to one cent per pound of shorn wool and five cents per hundredweight of lambs.

The payment program is authorized by the National Wool Act of 1954 which directs the Secretary of Agriculture to support the price of shorn wool at an incentive level he finds necessary to encourage an annual production of 300 million pounds. The Act sets the top incentive level at 110 per cent of parity and limits funds available for making payments to 70 per cent of tariff receipts from wool. At the time the incentive level of 62 cents per pound was

Long Drouth Is Damaging Foundations

The present prolonged drouth has caused soils to become dry to a great depth in many parts of Missouri. And a member of the soils department at the University of Missouri says that many springs have stopped flowing.

The extreme soil dryness is also showing up in other ways. The most significant effect is the shrinking and cracking of the soil. This is most apparent in areas of clay soils or where soils have a clay subsoil.

Shrinking of the soil is causing cracks in concrete foundations, brick walls, and paved roads. Damage to structures is generally more severe on earth fills.

The specialist says that soils have become dry to a depth of six feet or more. This is below the depth of many foundations and it's under these conditions that most of the trouble occurs. Cracks may form suddenly or they may develop gradually for several months. Once formed, they tend to widen and spread. Wetting the soil is rarely effective in restoring a broken foundation to its former position but it may prevent further deterioration.

According to the soils specialist, it's probable that breaks and cracks will continue to develop in walls and foundations even after the present dry period has ended. It will take a long time to restore normal subsoil moisture conditions.

For soils that contain much clay, foundations should extend into the subsoil below the zone subject to drying. Damage can also be controlled by larger footings, piers under foundations and reinforced concrete.

Geologists estimate that compaction of peat into coal took place at the rate of one foot every 10,000 years.

Feeder Pig Sales Dates Are Announced

Eight cooperative feeder pig sales are scheduled in Missouri during the rest of October. More than 18,000 feeder pigs have been consigned to these sales, according to University of Missouri Extension livestock specialists.

Pigs sold at these sales are inspected by a veterinarian when they are unloaded. They are then sorted into uniform lots under the supervision of the Missouri Agricultural Extension Service.

Pigs vary in weight from 25 to 125 pounds. Size of lots will vary from a few head to 125 or more.

The schedule for these October sales is Oct. 17 at Salem, Oct. 22 at Ellington, Oct. 23 at Van Buren, Oct. 24 at Birch Tree, Oct. 25 at Houston, Oct. 26 at Gainesville, Oct. 27 at Doniphan and Oct. 29 at Alton.

GOOD FARMING

in Pettis County
By MERLE VAUGHAN
County Extension Agent

Alfalfa Aphids

The alfalfa aphid is building up in force again. It showed up about State Fair time and has been relatively quiet since. We had talked at our extension election meetings about our entomologists or "bug" specialists warning us of coming attacks of various bugs.

Last week we had a letter from Sterling Kyd, extension entomologist, telling that the aphids had been building up rapidly the last two weeks. Just after receiving the letter, Associate Agent Owen Fox and I were in an alfalfa field belonging to Will Fowler of west of Hughesville. Most of the plants we examined there had a few aphids on them.

I used the story on the Wednesday and Thursday radio program and in the Thursday night paper. Then Friday Mr. Heimsoth of near Mora was in the office about fertilizing for a new alfalfa seeding next spring.

While here he asked about his old alfalfa field that started looking bad just before he cut it for hay. He reported too that it gummed up on the sickle bar so he could hardly cut it. I told him that apparently he had the spotted alfalfa aphid and had better check about spraying it.

This aphid is brownish-yellow and most of those found now are about the size of the head of a pin. Now and then you find a winged one that is about two or three times as large. They are usually found on the under side of the leaves.

The insect was discovered first in the southwestern United States in 1954. It apparently had come in on an airplane from some foreign country. Now it has spread with the aid of the southwestern west.

Will Have Feed Budget Sheet

This week we had a letter from Director J. W. Burch of the extension service asking if we could use a drought emergency feed budget sheet that was first made up for the 1953-54 drought.

We have ordered 250 copies of this folder and will have it available in the near future. In a way it carries the feed requirements of all livestock much the same as the balanced farming handbook. Several choices are emphasized. For example with dairy cattle the concentrates and protein are listed to fit 1) legume hay 2) some legume hay plus silage 3) non legume hay without silage 4) all roughage from corn or sorgho silage and 5) low grade, non legume dry roughage.

Similar figures are given for beef cattle and yearlings, hogs and sheep. One whole page is set up to figure the six months feed needs. Space is allowed for legume hay, none legume hay, low grade roughage, silage, corn, oats, bran and protein.

The back of that page gives place to figure income and expense to May 1, 1957, and to December 31, 1957. The figures used on the 1953-54 sheet give some differences in markets. They had hogs at $20 to $24; good to choice fed cattle

Must Provide Reserve Acres With Cover Crop

When Pettis County farmers place land in the Conservation Reserve they must agree to establish and maintain vegetative cover or other conservation practices approved by the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County office. In case the approved cover crop is already established farmers must agree to maintain the practice for the contract period, according to C. A. Staples, chairman of the Pettis County ASC.

Staples points out that cover crops established or to be maintained must be adequate to provide good protection from wind and water erosion in order to be approved by the county ASC committee.

$21 to $26; feeder cattle good to choice $17 to $20 and lambs $21. Eggs were 40 cents, chickens 24 cents and milk $4 per hundred weight.

We do plan to have these sheets in the near future and will attempt to use some of them at meetings.

Lespedeza Pasture for Dairy Cows

Some dairymen are forced to pasture lespedeza now for lack of any other feed even though they know it tends to dry cows up. Apparently there is some chemical in the drying stalks and leaves. One man told me of his cows going from five cans to three cans of milk per day. Another said he shifted from permanent pasture where there appeared to be no feed to a good stand of lespedeza and the cows dropped in their milk. When he turned them back they came up again. In such situations it will probably pay to buy hay and substitute it for that grazing. Of course you can get into the winter supply now but if that runs you short, hay bought next spring will probably cost more than that bought now.

According to staples, approved cover crops, other than trees and shrub cover, in most cases are limited to legumes or perennial grasses, normally seeded in the area for hay or pasture. However, under some circumstances, other grasses and legumes may be approved.

Staples states that Conservation Reserve contracts may be signed for from three to 15 calendar years, depending on the conservation practice to be carried out.

In cases where the ASC committee decides that the conservation reserve is already adequately covered by approved vegetative cover, the contract period is from three to five years at the option of the farmer. If vegetative cover is to be established with the aid of Soil Bank funds the contract period is five or ten years. Contracts calling for the planting of trees are available for a ten-year period.

Add Several Items to Your Sooner Chart

By SKIPPER PATRICK
The Associated Press

If you happen to be keeping a running chart on University of Oklahoma football records, get ready to enter these items at the expense of the Kansas Jayhawks Saturday:

1. A new modern victory streak of 34 games.

2. The 110th consecutive game in which the Sooners have scored, continuing their own national record.

3. The 55th Big Seven Conference game without a defeat.

The national champs notched their 33rd straight victory by humbling Texas 45-0 in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas Saturday. It was the seventh consecutive regular season game in which the Sooners have won by a shutout.

Kansas was the last Big Seven team to defeat Oklahoma, 16-13 way back in 1946 at Lawrence—the site of this week's game.

Rounding out the conference slate Saturday — with everybody still alive for second place and the Orange Bowl — Missouri will open its league campaign against Kansas State at Manhattan and Colorado plays Iowa State in Ames.

Nebraska has an intersectional game with Indiana at Lincoln.

Saturday's efforts included a remarkable comeback by Kansas State and the first Kansas victory of the season.

The K-State Wildcats, who had been handled roughly by Oklahoma A&M, Colorado and Oklahoma, surprised Nebraska 10-7 on Ben Grosse's third-quarter field goal from 33 yards out. It broke a 7-7 tie.

Kansas, down 12-14 through three quarters, exploded in the last period for 13 points that sank Iowa State 24-14. Kansas moved 38 yards in four plays for the touchdown that beat the fumbling Iowa team. The last touchdown was a "gimmie." Iowa State attempted a fourth down pass on its own 4-yard line. Kansas took over and scored on the last play of the game.

Colorado and Missouri each won non-conference games. Colorado's sharp backs raced over Colorado A&M at Boulder. Missouri ended its six-game losing streak by stopping little North Dakota State 42-0 at Columbia.

Oklahoma halfback Clendon Thomas scored three touchdowns against Texas to boost his season total to 7 for 42 points. Closest to him in scoring are his teammates, Tommy McDonald, and Homer Floyd of Kansas, each with 5 touchdowns for 30 points.

Bowling Champions Post 728 for Men, 590 for Women Goals

CHICAGO (AP)—Men who bowled better than 728 and women who topped 590 will get "I Beat the Champion" recognition in National Bowling Day competition.

All star champions Bill Lillard of Chicago and Anita Cantaline of Detroit posted those respective totals last night as the targets of the many thousands of the nation's participating bowlers.

The challengers, of course, can add their handicaps to their National Bowling Day competitive scores in stacking them against those of the champions. Meals go to the men, charm bracelets to the women whose aggregates better the champions' figures.

Fifty-cent entry fees of all competitors go to the Red Cross.

The 600 high scorers will participate in a later roll-off for 300 prizes, including 10 expense-paid vacations in Mexico.

Jewell and Emporia Clash in MCAU Game

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The William Jewell Cardinals will meet powerful College of Emporia at Liberty Saturday night in the top football game involving a M. C. A. U. member this week.

William Jewell last Saturday defeated Tarkio, 28-0, at Liberty. It was the Cardinals fourth victory against one loss this season. College of Emporia defeated William Jewell 45-0 last season. The Kansans have a winning streak of 30 regular season games.

Four other non-conference games complete the slate Saturday.

Powerful Missouri Valley, which won its sixth game of the season in beating Lewis College, 35-0 last Saturday, will observe its homecoming against Conway Arkansas State; Tarkio will play Dana at Blair, Neb.; Central hosts Carthage (Ill.) college, and Culver-Stockton meets the Principia in Canton.

Tarkio's loss to William Jewell was the first for the Owls this season. They previously had beaten Culver-Stockton, Central and Concordia.

Dartmouth end Monte Pascoe, received all-city and all-state recognition when he played for East High at Denver, Colo.

Four former Michigan State boxers turned professional. They are Chuck Davey, Jed Black, Herb Odum and Chuck Spieser.

Hold Babe Ruth Meeting-Election Wednesday Night

Attention is called to all sponsors, managers, officials, and parents of Babe Ruth baseball players, there is to be an organizational meeting at 7:45 p. m. Wednesday at the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce offices. This is the Babe Ruth organization and not the Ban Johnson group as was announced Sunday.

Election of officers for the 1957 season will be held. A general discussion on the future of Babe Ruth League baseball will also be held and plans discussed as to the increasing of the league.

Also on the program is planning for the annual banquet honoring the championship team of 1956. The date and time will probably be set at this meeting for the banquet and an invitation be arranged for a prominent baseball figure to speak to the boys.

Most important of all is the presence at the meeting of the sponsors of the various teams and their interest in the future of Babe Ruth baseball in Sedalia.

Warrensburg Mules Threat In the MIAA

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The Warrensburg State Mules, boasting fine offensive and defensive kick, are definite threats to the M.I.A. A. football throne.

Coach Lou Comer's Mules won their first conference game, fourth victory of the season, by defeating Maryville 13-6 in a ruggedly played game before about 5,000 at Warrensburg last Saturday night.

One of the nation's top teams among small colleges in total offense, the Mules got 320 yards rushing and 77 passing against Maryville. Stan Hensley scored Warrensburg touchdowns on runs of 13 and 6 yards. One Warrensburg touchdown was called back by a penalty.

Warrensburg hasn't won the conference title since 1926 although the Mules finished a strong second last season.

Defending champion Cape Girardeau, stunned 25-0 by Springfield last Saturday, and Maryville will open the week's slate at the Cape Friday.

Saturday, Warrensburg plays at Kirksville and Springfield at Rolla.

Rolla jumped on once-powerful Kirksville, 33-6, at Rolla last Saturday with five Miners sharing in the scoring. Rolla scored twice in the first quarter then added one in each of the next three periods.

Springfield, which had lost its first four games, exploded for 19 points in less than four minutes of the last quarter to shell Cape Girardeau. The Bears led 6-0 through three quarters. Feature of the game were two field goals by Ben Koeneman, one from the 45-yard line.

Oriole Officials Will Meet in Effort To Find New Manager

BALTIMORE (AP)—Manager-general Paul Richards and officials of the Baltimore Orioles were scheduled to meet today, presumably to wrestle with the problem of finding a new general manager.

Originally scheduled to meet Friday, the club officials decided to move the meeting up to today because some board members said they will be away later this week.

Sedalia Lodge Takes Third Annual State Bowling Tournament

The Sedalia Moose Lodge emerged victorious in the third annual State Moose Bowling Tournament held at the Sedalia Bowling Lanes Sunday afternoon.

Moberly Lodge finished second while the Union Lodge took third place.

Red Wittman was the high scorer for the Sedalia Lodge popping in a 617 series on games of 176, 235 and 206.

Gus Bell of the Cincinnati Redlegs has hit three straight homers in the last two seasons. He did it in Chicago in 1955 and in Philadelphia in 1955.

Twenty-nine favorites have scored during the 81 runnings of the Preakness Stakes at Pimlico.

CASEY'S STILL AT BAT — Casey Stengel stands before a photo mural of Yankee Stadium in the Yanks' New York office, holding the two-year contract under which he'll continue to practice the fine art of pennant-making for the Yanks, at a salary of $80,000 per year. ## Young Fighters Meet Tonight In 10-Rounder

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Garnett (Sugar) Hart of Philadelphia and Earl Dennis of New York, a couple of young, eager welterweights who have wailed that the stars won't fight them, collide tonight in a television 10-rounder (Dumont TV) 8:30 p. m. CST at New York's St. Nicholas Arena.

Hart, with a record of 14 knockouts in 17 pro fights, is an 8-3 favorite over the dangerous 24-year-old Dennis.

Dennis has a mediocre 30-13-5 record, including 11 kayos, but he has won 20 of his last 23 scraps. Cuba's Ike Logart, one of the welterweight contenders Hart and Dennis would like to meet, faces Gaspar (India) Ortega, a freestyle, tall Mexican youngster in the Wednesday night radio-TV feature (ABC 8 p. m. CST) at Boston's Mechanics building. The 23-year-old Logart's record is 45-5-5. Ortega's record is 34-7.

Joey Giambra, another handsome gladiator with titular ambitions, guns for his fifth straight victory Friday night (NBC TV, radio, 8 p. m. CST), at New York's Madison Square Garden. The 10th ranking contender takes on fast-punching, aggressive Gil Turner of Philadelphia. Giambra's record is 45-4-1. Turner's 30-13-1.

Sedalia Team Places Second in Marshall Bowling Tournament

Roseland Meats' traveling bowling team finished second in a round robin bowling tournament held at the Mar-Mo-Bowl at Marshall.

Six teams were entered in the tourney with Marshall winning all of its matches and Sedalia's Roseland Meats winning four. Other teams and matches won were Chillicothe 2, Whiteman AB, 2 Slater 2 and Warrensburg none.

High team games were rolled by Chillicothe with 931, Marshall with 926, and Warrensburg with 914. High individual games were rolled by Sedalia's John Hazell with 223 and Bob McCurdy with 222.

Bob McCurdy's 936 was the high five game series while Bill Shockey sponsor of Roseland Meats took second high with 931. The high team series was rolled by Sedalia with 4,395 pins for five matches.

Scholarships Go High OKALHOMA CITY (AP)—Abe Lemons, basketball coach at Oklahoma City University, was short on a tall player.

So he placed the following among the want ads: "Available, one basketball scholarship to a boy with good scoring average, 6 feet 5 or over."

When Pat McAteer, British Empire middleweight champion, made his American debut he continually looked around. He explained after the bout he was searching for the television camera.

Kansas Jayhawkers Are Next--

Oklahomans Try for Season Without Being Scored Upon

By ED BWILKS
The Associated Press

It's getting to the point where perhaps the only question about Oklahoma's football powerhouse is whether the Sooners can get through the season unscathed.

Coach Bud Wilkinson's national champs, with the remaining schedule giving little evidence they'll be unfrocked, now have rolled over three 1956 foes with their goal line still virgin territory. They snubbed North Carolina 36-0, humiliated Kansas State 66-0. Then they made themselves at home on the range with a 45-0 decision over Texas last weekend.

This week it's Kansas. The Jayhawkers, who have beaten only Iowa State in four games to date, figure to give the Sooners a modern record of 34 consecutive victories.

After Kansas all that stands between Oklahoma and another perfect season is Notre Dame, Colorado, Iowa State, Missouri, Nebraska, Oklahoma A&M and indifference.

Notre Dame, only a name for a change, may prove a stumbling, but it's unlikely. After a 38-14 thrashing by Purdue for a 1-2 record, the Irish now hold only the uncertain hope of upsetting one of the big guys. And if an upset is to be Notre Dame's claim to fame it almost has to come this weekend against Michigan State.

Michigan State, hard on Oklahoma's heels for the national title, took a 53-6 Hoosier Holiday against Indiana — leaving MSU atop the Big Ten with also unbeaten Ohio State (26-6 over Illinois) and Iowa (13-7 over Wisconsin). Iowa may make it to the Rose Bowl what with Michigan State ineligible to return and Ohio State on probation.

In the race for national honors, Georgia Tech, Texas Christian and long-absent Tennessee are ready to move in should either Oklahoma, Michigan State or Ohio State falter. All six are 3-0.

And on the fringe, there's Mississippi (4-0), already primed for a Southeastern Conference battle with Tech and Tennessee; Southern Cal (3-0) and perhaps Michigan (2-1). Michigan, beaten only by Michigan State, made an impressive comeback with a 48-14 crush against once proud and potent Army.

Georgia Tech, after trimming Louisiana State 39-7, meets Auburn Saturday. TCU is involved in one of those Southwest Conference toughies, battling Texas A&M, unbeaten but tied by Houston.

Tennessee, giving an example of Southern graciousness by permitting Chattanooga 20 points while scoring 42 last weekend, faces Alabama, still winless after a 23-6 lesson from TCU.

Southern Cal, idle last week, now tries Washington (3-1) for size. Michigan goes against Northwestern, Ohio State against Penn State.

Louisiana Starts Segregation Of All Sports

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Louisiana today segregated all sports.

It will be illegal for white and Negro amateur professional players to compete in the same "athletic training, games, sports or contests." Spectators also must be segregated. The maximum punishment is a $1,000 fine and one year imprisonment.

Although the law passed in the regular May session of the legislature did not take effect until today, its provisions have been felt for weeks.

Soon after Gov. Earl Long signed the bill July 17, some colleges began cancelling their commitments to appear in Louisiana. Some withdrew because of Negroes on their squads. Others said they were withdrawing on grounds of principle.

The university of Wisconsin was the first to act. It ended its 1957-58 home-and-home agreement for football games with Louisiana State University at Baton Rouge.

Seven schools called off basketball games set for next season. Notre Dame, Dayton and St. Louis quit the Sugar Bowl tourney. The Sugar Bowl substituted Alabama, Houston and Virginia Tech to play with Kentucky, only team remaining of the original four invited.

Santa Clara dropped out of the Louisiana invitational tournament by Virginia Military Institute, Loyola of New Orleans lost Harvard, Marquette and American University from its basketball schedule.

American Players Dominate Magazine's 1956 All-Star Team

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The Sporting News 1956 major league all-star baseball team was dominated by the American league for the first time in four seasons, with seven of the 11 players.

The National league held a 7-4 edge in the previous three seasons.

Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox was selected in the outfield Cardinals. This set a record, breaking a 10-time tie with Stan the Man.

The baseball weekly polled 211 members of the Baseball Writers Assn. to select the team.

Ted Kluszewski, Cincinnati, first base; Nellie Fox, Chicago White Sox, second base; Harvey Kuenn, Detroit, shortstop; Ken Boyer, St. Louis, third base; Williams, Mickey Mantle, New York Yankees, and Hank Aaron, Milwaukee, outfielders; Billy Pierce, Chicago White Sox; Whitey Ford, New York Yankees and Don Newcombe, Brooklyn, pitchers and Yogi Berra, New York, Yankees, catcher.

Goal Tending Insurance PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP)—Marcel Paille, who surprised during workouts with the New York Rangers, is only 23 but has been signed to a National Hockey League contract because the Rangers intend to keep him as "goal tending insurance." Paille was drafted for $10,000 from Chicoutimi of the Quebec Hockey League.

Teen-ager Wins Golf Title From Veteran

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP)—

As far as Marge Ferrie is concerned, Wiffie Smith, the new Trans-Mississippi amateur champion, is a much improved golfer.

Mrs. Ferrie of Gardena, Calif., said she found this out yesterday as the freckled redhead from Orange, Tex., scored a lopsided 3 and 6 victory in the Trans-Mississippi finals at the scenic Monterey Peninsula Country Club's 6,071 par 73 layout.

Mrs. Ferrie, who won the first of her two state titles in 1940—when Wiffie was three—said she played the long hitting champ four years ago and the teen-ager then shot a 97.

"She's improved," the loser observed.

Four Professionals Battle in Four-Way Playoff for Top

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Four tournament professionals battled it out today in a four-way playoff for the $5,000 top money in the Western Open after usually steady Doug Ford blew his chance to take it all.

Ford, one of the finest short game players in the business, came apart on the last three holes of yesterday's climactic round to finish in a 284 dead heat with Don January, flashy Lampasas, Texas, youngster; Jay Hebert, Sandford, Fla., and Mike Fetchick, Mahopac, N. Y.

Christie Flanagan Jr. of Port Arthur, Tex., won the Notre Dame freshman golf tournament. His dad was a Notre Dame halfback 30 years ago.

The University of North Dakota began playing football in 1894.

Jockey Bids Farewell To Nashua After Win Of Belmont Gold Cup

NEW YORK (AP)—Sunny Jim Fitzsimmons says farewell to his beloved Nashua today.

Nashua entrains for Lexington, Ky., and stud duty after winning the Jockey Club Gold Cup at Belmont Park—the race that the 82-year-old trainer wanted "most of all to win."

The 4-year-old son of Nasrullah, for whom a syndicate headed by Leslie Combs II paid $1,251,200, closed out his racing career with a record of 22 victories in 30 starts and world record earnings of $1,268,565. Six of his triumphs and earnings of $343,150 came in 10 outings for the syndicate.

"Yes, I really wanted to win that one," said Mr. Fitz in talking of Nashua's record-shattering performance of 3:20.4 in the two miles of the Gold Cup. "I told Eddie (Arcaro) to take him out on the front end and let the others catch him. I figured the distance was just as tough for the others as my horse."

300,000 Americans Will Vote for Their First Time

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Odd facts a columnist never knew if he didn't read his mail—or eavesdrop:
That Lord Kitchener, one of Britain's greatest soldiers, had a lifelong fear of cats.
That the average baby is 20 inches long at birth... but if the stork short-changed you there isn't much you can do about it.
That your child's fingernails grow faster than your own.
That in this envious world not 1 out of 100 persons can name a word to describe the feeling of pleasure you get out of another person's happiness. Actually there are two such words—confelicity and macarism—but neither is listed in my Collegiate Dictionary.
That anyone who writes a suicide note in which he tells how he wants his property divided is more likely to really kill himself than one who pens a farewell note which makes no mention of what he'd like done with his possessions—the second guy really hasn't made up his mind to let go.
That anyone who threatens suicide is capable of it, but few who say they are afraid they will commit suicide actually do.
That many women fear developing cervical cancer during pregnancy, but only 1 in 7,000 does... and the rate is even lower among women under 30.
That among the 250 new varieties of fruit developed by Luther Burbank, the "plant wizard," were a white blackberry and a plum that tasted like a pear.
That 300,000 naturalized Americans will be able for the first time to vote for President Nov. 6... and it's a safe bet that a higher percentage will go to the polls than among our native-born citizens, who inherited freedom.
That Theodore Roosevelt was the only president who ever officially loaned his name to a toy—the "teddy bear," of which 150 million have been sold.
That tuberculosis, far from being conquered, still kills more people than all other infectious diseases combined.
That to determine the average height of a child between 4 and 12, doctors often use this formula: Multiply the age by 2½ and add 30. Thus a 10-year-old, if average, will be 55 inches tall. A child of 12 averages 60 inches—5 feet.
That—now don't tell me you knew this!—fish are born as naked as jaybirds. They don't develop scales until after birth.
That Canada geese don't fly in their familiar V-shape formation to ape the Air Force but to cut down wind resistance. They average 50 miles an hour on nonstop flights of hundreds of miles.
That the chimney swift is the most maneuverable bird that flies because it is the only one known that can beat its wings alternately—flat right, flap left, flap right.
That experiments indicate bees identify honey producing flowers first by color and only secondarily by scent—a color-blind bee with a heavy summer head cold must not be much help to the hive.
That among the few things a nickel will still buy is a trip from Europe to Asia. But first you have to get to Istanbul, Turkey, where a brief five-cent ferry ride across the Bosphorus then you're in Asia. That Artemus Ward, humorist of an earlier American generation, summed up the present day attitude pretty well when he observed, "Let us all be happy and live with in our means—even if we have to borrow the money to do it with."

Sacred Heart News—Senior Class Candidate Is Activity Queen After Drive

By PHYLLIS AGGELER
The activity drive ended last Friday at three o'clock, with $573.50 being turned in at that time. The seniors had turned in the most money per person, which means that their honorary queen candidate, Phyllis Aggeler, will be crowned Queen at the Activity Dance. The freshmen came in second, with the sophomores third and the juniors last. The queen's attendants will be Rosa Lee Mergen, junior; Pat Farris, sophomore, and Joyce Klein, freshman. The date of the Activity Dance has not been set.
Tuesday evening at 8, a parent-student council meeting was held in the cafeteria. The meeting was attended by the council members of the High School, members of the Parents Club and the officers and representatives of the Student Council. Various dances and parties were planned although definite dates were not set.
Father Pelletier, athletic director at Sacred Heart, called a meeting last Monday after school of all girls interested in playing volleyball with over 30 girls reporting. The volleyball tryouts were held Thursday night and 15 girls were to be selected for the team. Team captain is Ruth Ann Bahner.

Wednesday night a meeting of boys interested in playing basketball was held with 20 boys attending. Palmer Nichols, coach, spoke to the boys about the coming season. There are 17 games scheduled for the season with nine at home. The first basketball and volleyball game will be played here Nov. 6.
The 23 new Mizpah members were initiated Thursday with initiation in charge of the Junior girls. The initiation began at 7:45 a.m., and was climaxed at 2 p.m. with an assembly, at which the new members performed various stunts. The initiation closed with the new members taking the Mizpah loyalty pledge.

March Thru Church To Give Offering

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—Robed klansmen invaded a small rural church last night in an unscheduled demonstration that startled evening worshippers.
More than 100 men in Ku Klux Klan regalia marched to the altar, left contributions and walked out again. There was no disturbance.
The pianist was playing "Onward Christian Soldiers" when the hooded but unmasked KKK members appeared. She continued with the same tune during the 10 minutes required for their single file parade through the Culbert Street Baptist Church at Whistler, 10 miles north of here.
E. C. Barnard, a Klan spokesman, said the Klansmen had visited other churches but that this was the first time they had gone in their robes.
The pastor, the Rev. B. R. Mills, was unavailable for comment.

School Official Faces Assault, Battery Charge for Spanking
IONIA, Mich. (AP)—Charges of assault and battery confronted school superintendent Harry Flower of nearby Palo today in the wake of an alleged spanking incident involving a 7-year-old boy.
Flower, 31, was fired and landed in jail after Mrs. Vice Wolfington complained that her son Robert suffered bruises she said were inflicted by Flower.
Deputy Sheriff Ralph Johnson said Flower admitted spanking him boy Friday, saying he caught him and other youngsters throwing stones at a teacher's car. The deputy said Flower told him he had not struck the boy hard enough to cause injury.

Adlai Caravan Now Boasts 'Mr. Fixit'

LIBERTYVILLE, Ill. (AP)—A six-foot matinee idol type "Mr. Fixit" is the rising star of Adlai E. Stevenson's presidential campaign caravan.

He is 27-year-old Richard Rowan, onetime sea cook and water ski instructor.

As far as many of the newsmen covering Stevenson are concerned, Rowan is the one bright light in what at times was a very dark picture of organization.

Luggage is his main chore but he has a flair for getting other things done. Reporters know that, if the local constabulary leaves them stranded in traffic, the taciturn and unassuming Rowan will get out, wave people politely aside and make a path to a point right behind Stevenson's open car.

The way Rowan hitched his star to Stevenson is a lesson in persistence.

About six months ago, as Stevenson's aides tell it, a letter came in from Rowan asking for a job. A polite noncommittal reply went back. That brought a flood of letters and postcards, at least one a day, saying:

"Stevenson needs Rowan."

Stevenson turned this burgeoning correspondence over to his personal aide and law associate, William McCormick Blair. Blair handled it for a while, then passed it down to his blonde secretary, Phyllis Gustafson.

At length she complained:

"This Rowan character is driving me out of my mind."

Then one day a huge package came. When opened, it turned out to be a mobile which, when hung up, said on all of its free-wheeling parts:

"Stevenson needs Rowan."

That did it. Blair told him to come to Chicago as a volunteer worker for Stevenson during the Democratic convention, if he wanted to. He did, and on the basis of his work there Blair put him on the payroll.

On Thursday some of the Spiz and "L" Club members sold refreshments to men traveling through Sedalia on a gas economy run. The receipts of the stand were clear profit for the Spiz and "L" Club as the items sold were furnished by the Mobilgas Co.

The senior high assembly Wednesday was presented by the Dramatics Class. It was the much-talked about play, "The Pot Boilers." This play showed evidence of some fine actors and actresses.

Governor Will Make His Bid After Defeat

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—Gov. J. Bracken Lee, beaten in his intra-party bid for an unprecedented third term, was back in the running today after a dramatic announcement that he will make the race on his own.

And though the two other candidates have a long head start, some political observers are predicting Lee will give them a run for their money.

The Republican governor announced he will allow his name to remain on the ballot as an independent. It was put there by a group called Citizens for Lee after the governor lost the nomination to George D. Clyde. The Democratic candidate is L. C. Romney.

In a bristling speech, Lee blamed his primary troubles on Sen. Arthur V. Watkins (R-Utah). "I accuse him of fraud," Lee said, "when he represented to the Republican party that his hand-picked candidate for governor was a true Republican when in fact his candidate has no record of service to, or activity for, the Republican party."

"I accuse him of splitting the Republican party by the use of machine politics of the most flagrant kind, and I intend to expose him and his manipulations in the campaign ahead."

Watkins withheld comment. Clyde replied: "I am the candidate of no man or group of men."

The Executive Committee of the Republican party in Utah issued a statement pledging unanimous support to Clyde, who is on leave of absence as director of the Utah Water and Power Board and is making his first bid for elective public office.

Lee gained national attention with his challenge of the legality of the nation's foreign aid program. To emphasize his protest he refused to pay a portion of his 1955 federal income tax. The government collected anyway, by enforcing a lien against his bank account.
